

GRAMMAR PRACTICE. 3rd ESO. UNIT 1

Preparat per: Maria Tarragó

A. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate form of the verb to be

1. John is on holiday.
2. They are 14 years old.
3. He is a very hard worker.
4. They are late for school every day.
5. I am sad because the holiday is over.
6. It is cold outside.

B. Write negative sentences using the words given in brackets

1. You are tired. (He). He is not tired. / He isn't tired.
2. They are friends. (We) _____
3. The chair is new. (old) _____
4. The blackboard is clean. (desks) _____
5. We are happy. (He) _____
6. I am tall. (short) _____

C. Write the questions corresponding to the following answers

1. Are you at school? Yes, we are at school.
2. Are you angry? No, I'm not. I'm not angry.
3. Are they happy? Yes, they are happy about the party.
4. Is Jane sick? No, Jane isn't sick.
5. Are you in the kitchen? Yes, I'm in the kitchen.
6. Are your parents at home? No, my parents aren't at home now.
7. Is Helen in your class? Yes, she is. Helen is in my class this year.
8. Are you a good pupil? Yes, I am a good pupil.

D. Circle the subjects and underline the complements in each sentence

1. Tammy is taking the dog outside.
2. The children are playing with friends.
3. Mr Miller is reading a newspaper.
4. Mr. and Mrs. James are writing a book.
5. The pupils draw pictures.
6. The girls are making ice-cream.

E. Substitute the names by a suitable pronoun, following exercise D

1. She is taking the dog outside.
2. The children are playing with _____.
3. _____ is reading a newspaper.
4. _____ are writing a book.
5. The pupils draw _____.
6. The girls are making _____.

F. Rewrite the following sentences. Write the words in brackets instead of the underlined words.

1. Mr Jones has got a shop in town. (Mr and Mrs Jones)

Mr and Mrs Jones have got a shop in town.

2. I haven't got a car. (Mrs. Smith)

3. We haven't got a dog. (John)

4. Have you got a garden? (Betty)

5. Tom has got some ice-cream. (Tom and David)

6. We haven't got a dog. (John)

7. Mary hasn't got a newspaper. (Mary and John)

G. Answer the following questions. Follow the example.

1. Have you got a newspaper? No, I haven't. I've got a magazine.

2. Has John got a telephone? Yes, _____. _____ a telephone.

3. Have you got a house in the city? No, _____. _____ a house in the country.

4. Has she got a ticket to the play? No, _____. _____ a ticket to the concert.

5. Has he got the key to the house? Yes, _____. _____ the key to the house.

6. Have they got a large garden? No, _____. _____ a small garden.

H. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate possessive adjective

1. I have got a brown bag. My bag is brown.

2. Fred has got some books. They are _____ books.

3. Mary has got a red coat. _____ coat is red.

4. They have got a new car. _____ car is new.

5. The Smiths have got a swimming pool. It is _____ swimming pool.

6. The book has got a nice cover. _____ cover is new.

7. You have got a cat. It is _____ cat.

8. We have got some chocolates. They are _____ chocolates.

I. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate possessive pronoun.

1. This is my pen. It is mine.

2. This is her book. It is _____

3. Is that his coat? Is it _____ ?

4. These aren't your clothes. They aren't _____

5. Hane and Michael have got a black dog. The dog is _____

6. We have got new furniture. The furniture is _____

7. That is not my umbrella, it is your umbrella. Where is _____?

8. You are wearing nice shoes. Are they are _____?