

From Jaffna to Ohio

Dreams are finally coming true for 19-year old R. Anushangan from St. John's College, Jaffna. Having come first in Jaffna District's Advanced Level Commerce stream but denied entry into the top local universities in the South, he found new opportunities getting a 55% scholarship at Otterbein College, a private liberal arts school in Ohio, USA with the help of Guidance Counselor and foreign university placement advisor Priyanthi Dissanayake.
